

Constitution of India, Article 226 – It is the Court or Tribunal which must determine whether or not prejudice has been caused, and not the authority on an ex parte appraisal of the facts. Dharampal Satyapal Ltd. v. Dy.Comm. Of Central Excise, Gauhati and Ors (2015) 8 SCC 519, referred.

read here

PLRonline 420318

PLRonline 420318