

CPC O. 12 R. 6 - Admission has to be unequivocal and unqualified and the admission in the written statement should also be taken as a whole and not in part.

PRINT / DOWNLOAD PDF

R.K. Markan vs. Rajiv Kumar Markan, 2003 AIHC 632 (633) Delhi, wherein it was observed as under :-
“For passing a decree on the basis of admission of the defendants in the pleadings, law is well settled that the admission has to be unequivocal and unqualified and the admission in the written statement should also be taken as a whole and not in part....”

Tags: CPC O. 12 R. 6, Judgment on admissions