

CPC Order 14 Rule 5 - Additional issue- It is the duty of the Court to frame the proper/specific issues on all the points raised in the pleadings - Even if a party could not press for an issue at the initial stage that party is not debarred from claiming of framing an additional issue at the later stage - Mere this fact that the application for additional issue has been moved at the belated stage is no ground to decline the request when this fact is not disputed that his issue arises from the pleadings of the parties

PLRonline 314901

Login / Subscribe to read Full Notes and Judgment

2016 PLRonline 0103