

Criminal Trial - Circumstantial evidence - For bringing home the guilt of the accused, prosecution has to firstly prove negligence and then establish direct nexus between negligence of the accused and the death of the victim

[SC] criminal trial - Circumstantial evidence - No eye witness - In a case of Circumstantial evidence there is a risk of jumping to conclusions in haste - While evaluating such evidence the jury should bear in mind that inference of guilt should be the only reasonable inference from the facts - For bringing home...
