

CrPC. S. 207 - CCTV - Complete documents i.e., electronic record that is marked by the prosecution should be furnished to the accused - A document would also mean an electronic record which may even be audio and video content - According to the prosecution, the entire case rests upon the CCTV footage - It is the primary evidence against the petitioner - Investigating agency directed shall furnish the entire CCTV footage and its report filed before the Court to the accused before commencement of the trial.

read HERE

PLRonline 458530

PLRonline 458530