

CrPC S. 439 - Bail - While granting bail, the relevant considerations are (i) nature of seriousness of the offence; (ii) character of the evidence and circumstances which are peculiar to the accused; and (iii) likelihood of the accused fleeing from justice; (iv) the impact that his release may make on the prosecution witnesses, its impact on the society; and (v) likelihood of his tampering. Anil Kumar Yadav v. State (NCT of Delhi), (2018) 12 SCC 129, reiterated.

2022 Scej 0196
