

PRINT / DOWNLOAD PDF

Court considered the issue in respect of admissibility of documents or contents thereof and held as under:

"Admissibility of a document is one thing and its probative value quite another – these two aspects cannot be combined. A document may be admissible and yet may not carry any conviction and the weight of its probative value may be nil."

State of Bihar v. Sri Radha Krishna Singh., AIR 1983 SC 684

Tags: Admissibility, Document - Admissibility of, Evidence, Public Document