

Execution – Admitted that as of now, there is no declaration in his favour, as regards any right, title or interest in any part of the suit property. Mere pendency of a regular second appeal does not entitle to become a party in the execution petition which has arisen from an order of to of eviction.

Read Full Text : 2022 PLRonline 8953