

Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, Section 13B(2) - Video conferencing - Needless to say that in conducting such proceedings the Court can also use the medium of video conferencing and also permit genuine representation of the parties through close relations such as parents or siblings where the parties are unable to appear in person for any just and valid reason as may satisfy the Court, to advance the interest of justice.

2017 PLRonline 0009