

IDA S. 11 - No work no pay - If the employee is not at all at fault and she was kept out of work by reasons of the decision taken by the employer, then to deny the fruits of her being vindicated at the end of the day would be unfair to the employee

Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, Section 11 - No work no pay - Is a principle which is apposite in circumstances where the employee does not work but it is not an absolute principle, which does not admit of exceptions - The most important question is whether the employee is at fault in any manner -...
