

Insurance - Standard Form for Commercial Vehicles Package Policy - Usually, mere delay in informing the theft to the insurer, cannot amount to a breach of 'duty to co-operate' of the insured

PRINT / DOWNLOAD PDF

insurance - Standard Form for Commercial Vehicles Package Policy - Words 'co-operate' and 'immediate', in condition No. 1 -Term 'co-operate' as used under the contract needs to be assessed in facts and circumstances - While assessing the 'duty to co-operate' for the insured, inter alia the Court should have regards to those breaches by the insured which are prejudicial to the insurance company - Usually, mere delay in informing the theft to the insurer, when the same was already informed to the law enforcement authorities, cannot amount to a breach of 'duty to co-operate' of the insured

2020 SCeJ 069, 2020 PLRonline 7090

Tags: insurance, Insurance - Delay in intimation, Insurance - theft