

Interpretation of Statutes - In determining the question whether provision is mandatory or directory, language alone is not always decisive - The Court has to have the regard to the context, the subject matter and the object of the provision.

2017 PLRonline 0009