Indian Penal Code, 1860, S. 498A - When an offence has been committed by a woman by meting out cruelty to another woman, i.e., the daughter-in-law, it becomes a more serious offence - Mother-in-law is held to be guilty for the offence under Section 498A of IPC - Being a lady, she ought to have been more sensitive vis-à-vis her daughter-in-law - If a lady, i.e., the mother-in-law herein does not protect another lady, the other lady, i.e., daughter-in-law would become vulnerable - Husband of the victim was staying abroad - The victim was staying all alone with her in-laws - Therefore, it was the duty of the appellant, being the mother-in-law and her family to take care of her daughter-in-law, rather than harassing and/or torturing and/or meting out cruelty to her daughter-in-law regarding jewels or on other issues - Therefore, as such, no leniency is required to be shown to the appellant in this case.
