

Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, Section 22D - Liberal Procedure and Power of Review - Section 22D of the Legal Services Authorities Act enacts a procedure which is more liberal than the Code of Civil Procedure. The provision that the Permanent Lok Adalat shall be guided by principles of natural justice, objectivity, fair play, equity and other principles of justice, and shall not be bound by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 and the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, includes within its liberal construction the power to review as well.
