

National Health Mission – Employees appointments are contractual in nature and based on local selection criteria – The posts under National Health Mission are appointed and placed for a particular facility/administrative unit and the same are non transferable in nature.

(201) PLR 067