

Driving Licence

Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 (59 of 1988) – Service Matter – In any case, the driving licence, on which reliance was placed by the petitioner for seeking appointment, having been found to be fake clearly proves that the petitioner did not possess the requisite qualification for appointment to the post of Driver – If a candidate does not possess the qualification for appointment to the post and the certificate, which is produced, is found to be fake, the consequence has to be faced by such a candidate even if he has continued with the department for a long time – Petitioner could not, in any case, possess two driving licences at a given time – That would be in violation of the Statutory provisions, as contained under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 (59 of 1988).

175 PLR 732