

Pleadings – Replication – The issues were framed on 14.08.2017 – . Thereafter, the case was fixed for evidence of the plaintiff – Then at the stage of the evidence of the plaintiff, the replication was allowed to be filed vide order dated 21.09.2017 – It was thereafter that the application for discarding the replication was filed – The initial order dated 21.09.2017, taking the replication on record has not been challenged – The present petitioner has challenged the order, vide which the Court refused to recall the earlier order – Merely the pleadings have been completed. Though it may be irregularity but there is no illegality to take the replication at the later stage.

Read here: 2018 PLRonline 1101