

Punjab Police Rules, 1934, Rule 9.18 – It is apparent that the appointing authority retains absolute right to retire any Government servant on or after he or she has attained the age of 55 years without assigning any reason – In the present case, the appointing authority has chosen to exercise the same – The retirement on or after attaining the age of 55 years does not carry any stigma – Such decisions can be taken in the interest of the department or the Government – The High Court, has a very limited jurisdiction.

Subscribe

PLRonline 441660