

Court was examining the issuance of probate in relation to the Will allegedly executed by Smt. AM, bequeathing a major part of her property in favour of only one daughter, although she had another daughter and a son – The Court found that the propounder has failed to furnish reasonable explanation for the same and a thick cloud of suspicious circumstances hovers over the Will in question.

Kavita Kanwar v. Mrs. Pamela Mehta , (2020) SCCOnline Supreme Court 464